CHARACTER DETAIL (including yourself!)

Character development is not just for fiction. Remind yourself of the quirks and personalities of your characters and the key features you are presenting about them in this book. We all have a lot of angles to our personalities, so describe in keywords the ones you will focus on in the book.

CHARACTERS TRAITS

Need some ideas? Focus on the story line and how, what and why it happened. Define characters accurately if you are writing a memoir. If you are writing fiction, define the traits to extremes.
